Important Tour Information:

Book Now rates valid until May 03, 2027, valid on air inclusive packages only.

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not appropriate for travelers who use wheelchairs, walkers, and other mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

The Florence walking tour lasts 3 hours with only one restroom break. No seating is available during the Florence, Venice, and Vatican touring days. Expect crowded, cobblestone streets with narrow sidewalks. The minimum walking distance is 1.4 miles (2.3 kilometers) during the tour of Venice, plus 1.1 miles (1.7 kilometers) back to the hotel.

Venice is not accessible to vehicles, and you should expect large crowds and narrow streets with limited sidewalk space. Venice sightseeing involves 3 motorboat rides (20-30 minutes each) and walking. The walking tour requires 90 minutes on your feet, covering 1.2 miles (1.9 kilometers) and about 100 steps. Agility is needed to board the gondola boats for the optional tour.

The Vatican Museum and St. Peter's Basilica tour lasts 5 hours with only one 20-minute break. There is no air-conditioning inside the Vatican Museums. The Vatican tour covers a minimum walking distance of 2.6 miles (4.2 kilometers) and expect to climb down about 120 steps and up 30 steps.

Motorcoaches have strict circulation limits and designated drop-off/pick-up points in historic cities including Rome, Vatican City, Orvieto, Assisi, Cortona, Florence, and Venice. Wear comfortable, well-broken-in walking shoes for your comfort and safety.

The included activities are not suitable for travelers using motorized scooters, wheelchairs, walkers, or Zimmer-frames.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at the time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Most shops and businesses in Italy are closed on Sundays and on national/religious holidays.

Proper dress (covering your knees and shoulders) is required when visiting religious sites, sanctuaries, basilicas, etc.

Olives are picked over a period of approximately 45 days. The exact starting and ending day depends on the weather and can vary from mid-October to mid-December.

On occasion, due to inclement weather, your boat trip to Murano Island may be substituted with a visit to a local glass factory in Venice.

*Vatican Museums are closed on Sundays and Catholic holidays, and hours and dates can change. Visits may need to be rescheduled, or may experience longer wait times, due to Vatican events.

Most museums in Florence are closed on Mondays, including the Academy Gallery and the Uffizi. Most museums in Florence require reservations to access. In order to reduce waiting in line, we suggest you reserve your ticket online prior to departure if you plan to visit the Academy Gallery or the Uffizi during your free time in Florence.

On the day you transfer to Florence, you can expect to arrive at the hotel around 4:30 p.m. The following day, you can expect your included tour of Florence to conclude by 1:00 p.m.
If booking tickets for one of the above museums, allow yourselves 30 minutes to reach them from your hotel and/or the end point of your walking tour.

When reserving single accommodations, be advised that single rooms in Italy are always smaller in size and the beds are cot-sized.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

Travelers with dietary restrictions or food allergies should be aware that included meals may feature pre-set menus showcasing local cuisine. Dietary needs may be shared with restaurant staff when possible; however, accommodations cannot be guaranteed. Travelers are encouraged to discuss their needs with their Tour Manager while on tour. Due to local ingredients and food preparation practices, options may be limited and cross-contamination may occur.

To complete your tour, we include round-trip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Our air travelers will depart from Venice airport.

Please be advised, many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Prepaid tipping is not available on our tours therefore payment of customary end-of-trip gratuities for your Tour Manager, driver, hotel housekeepers, and cruise ship waitstaff should be handled individually when applicable during the course of your tour.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.
